 LR 269, 270, 271

package, of which primarily there's only one bill left in that, and then the claims bill, and then we'll return to General File, senator priority bills, going back to Senator Jensen's mental health bill, following that discussion and proceed Monday, if there is time, to bills that follow that. I want to tell the body that I think you've accomplished a good deal of work this week. I commend you, and the Appropriations Committee especially, on the budget work and we've at least gotten this far and I think that's decent progress, very good progress. So hope you have a good weekend and we'll see you Monday. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Clerk, items for the record, or messages?

CLERK: Mr. President, amendments to be printed: Senator Landis, LB 1083; Senator Vrtiska, LB 1241; Senator Landis, LB 973. Resolutions, new: LR 269 by Senator Loudon that calls for a study; LR 270 by Senator Loudon, a study resolution, both will be referred to the board; LR 271 by Senator Smith, that will be laid over, Mr. President. (Also reports received by the Legislature, and report of registered lobbyists, Legislative Journal pages 1159-1162.)

Mr. President, I have a priority motion. Senator Raikes would move to adjourn until Monday morning, March 22, at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You've heard the motion by Senator Raikes to adjourn till Monday morning, March 22, 9:00 a.m. All in favor of that motion say aye. Opposed to the motion say nay. We are adjourned. Have a nice weekend and please drive carefully.
